

Ceramist Lene Kuhl Jakobsen

Hi there.

2016 is already well on the way and I hope you have had a nice summer.

My start to the year has been a busy one as I look after our granddaughter Mia once a week which I really enjoy.

Then I have been working towards a few ceramic events that will come up shortly.

From 23 March I am exhibiting at The Bolin Bolin Gallery together with a friend Andrew Potocnik. He is a real master crafts person and works in wood.

We will show pieces where clay and wood are combined as well as our own individual creations.

The exhibition will include both functional as well as sculptural works.

Opening hours daily from 9am-5pm.

Exhibition continues till 24 April.

You can read more on www.baag.com.au

Invitation for 'things of wood and clay'

I have had a group of sculptures accepted for the 2016 biennial North Queensland Ceramic Awards exhibition at Pinnacles Gallery in Townsville .

This exhibition is open from 11 March to 1 May in case you are visiting up North.

www.townsville.qld.gov.au

I continue to take part in The Ivanhoe Makers Market which is on 19 March from 10-4 at The Livingstone Community Centre in Ivanhoe.

That day you will also be able to check out 'Create from a Crate' at Banyule's 'Hatch' Gallery at 14 Ivanhoe Parade. www.createfromacrate.com

Andrew Potocnik has some great pieces in this exhibition where all pieces have been created by Victorian woodworkers from discarded crates.

Cheers,
Lene

lenekuhl.com

Copyright © 2016 Lene Kuhl Jakobsen, All rights reserved.

You're receiving this email because you opted in at our website to hear about the latest news, galleries, and exhibitions regarding Lene Kuhl Jakobsen Ceramist.