

Hi there.

It's time to tell you of events to come before X-mas as the final weeks of 2016 approaches.

In September I went on a nice holiday with Peter to see the family in Denmark and we also visited Stockholm and Riga.

Sadly at the end of our stay my father died suddenly and then 6 weeks later we lost my mother.

So this has been a rather sad time and hard when one lives so far away.....

But looking after my granddaughter Mia on Tuesdays makes me smile :)

I have been making new pieces which hopefully will make gifts for someone on Xmas day!

See below some of the pieces, including new terracotta pots with succulents which I will have for sale at the markets I attend.

I will be taking part in the Ivanhoe Makers Markets on 19 November and 17 December (open 10am-3pm)

And 3rd and 4th of December are the dates for The Scandinavian Christmas Bazaar.

See flyer attached here, and below.

I will be there with a large selection of works for sale, including pieces fired in Sandra Bowkett's wood fire kiln.
