

Ceramist Lene Kuhl Jakobsen

Hi there.

Once upon a time in the 70's.....

These 3 bowls from 1978 have decorations made with real leaves dipped in coloured slip, using a method I develop while studying.

It is 40 year since I finished my course in Ceramics at Kolding Art and Craft School in Denmark so I wonder how many pots I have made since then :-)

You can read more about my 'clay journey' in this interview from Craft's Juli newsletter.

This week I am glazing new pieces for my stall at The Heide Makers Market which takes place on these Saturdays:

September 8th, October 13th and November 10th.

This group of shapes will be shown at 'Form Surface Structure: Sculpture 2018' Kerrie Lowe Gallery in Sydney from 21st of September. www.kerrielowe.com
