

Check out what's new and what's coming up this month!

Ceramist Lene Kuhl Jakobsen

Hi there.

Autumn is here and I am glad the hot weather has gone.

Thanks to Judith at 'Potier' I am busy making vases for the shop at the NGV where a Monet exhibition opens May 10th.

The new Contemporary Art Space 'Hatch' in Ivanhoe is showing 'Home': Reframing Craft and Domesticity. My 'Mr. Curly' teaset belonging to the Banyule Art Collection is in good company with 85 fine craft based works by 55 artists. Read here www.banyule.vic.gov.au/arts for opening hours and satellite events.

Country Style April edition has a picture of a (small!) black beaker next to peonies in a bottle by Sophie Milne.

Thank you for kind words regarding the new website www.lenekuhl.com

Below are more things I am involved with in the next few weeks.

Cheers Lene

Nordic Festival

The Nordic Festival takes place in beautiful Warburton in the Yarra Valley on the weekend of 18th and 19th of May. I have a stall at the

Shoot the potter

This photo was featured in the latest edition of Ceramics Australia in the 'Shoot the potter' competition. My friend Leanne Cole took

Markets

20th April Ivanhoe Makers Market 10am-4pm
Crn Waterdale Rd and Livingstone St.

market together with Karen Glahn who makes silver jewellery.

Have a look at www.nordicfestival.org to see the full program. I am looking forward to the dinner in the big 'same' tent on the Saturday night.

the photograph and you can see more of her work at leannecolephotography.com

4th May 11am-5pm Rose St Artist Market Fitzroy

18-19th May 'Nordic' Festival Warburton

1st June Rose St Artist Market Fitzroy

A photo of the Cheviot train tunnel on the Mansfield-Tallarook rail-trail....I think of the hard work making the nearly 800.000 handmade bricks!

A nice piece of slate I found along the path.

The view near Alexandra. Bike riding on the trail during a weekend recently was good fun and I hope to do more soon.

forward to a friend

Copyright © 2013 Lene Kuhl Jakobsen, All rights reserved.