

Welcome to Newsletter No 3.

I am very pleased to tell you that my work was selected for the 2013 Manningham Victorian Ceramic Art Award Exhibition at the Manningham Art Gallery in Doncaster. The exhibition is open 11th July till 17th August. Read here about the opening hours, the other finalists and the judge David Hurlston.

My piece consists of many small hand-formed porcelain shapes displayed on 2 shelves (made by artist Andrew Potocnik).

The title is : Memento Argil for Andy and Ida.

For my artist statement, visit lenekuhl.com News Section.

I hope you will enjoy this exhibition which takes place every second year.

This 'Shell' teapot will be in the 2013 Sydney Teapot Show from 31 July - 1 September.

The Inner City Clayworkers Gallery in Glebe celebrates the 25th teapot exhibition.

Read here about the categories of teapot themes and the many sponsored awards.

It's time for a large cup of hot chocolate now that winter has come...

Markets:

Rose Street in Fitzroy: Saturdays 28th June and 27th July (11-5pm)

Ivanhoe Makers Market: Saturday 20th July (10-4pm)

The First OSCAS! My studio will be open as part of the Open Studio Ceramics Australia Showcase on August 17th and 18th. More about this event closer to the date.

Also in the next newsletter I hope to show pieces that have been fired in Sandra Bowkett's new wood-fired kiln. I am looking forward to help with the firing which is hard work but really exciting.

Copyright © 2013 Lene Kuhl Jakobsen, All rights reserved.

You're receiving this email because you opted in at our website to hear about the latest news, galleries, and exhibitions regarding Lene Kuhl Jakobsen Ceramist.

unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences

