

Ceramist Lene Kuhl Jakobsen

Welcome to Newsletter No 4.

Spring is nearly here and August is a busy month for me:
"Seurchin"™ inspired pieces are shown at this exhibition in Wonthaggi Victoria.

The Manningham exhibition finishes on 17th August and the Sydney Teapot Show continues till 1st September.

I am doing a slide presentation for ceramic students at Chisholm Institute, taking part in Open Studio weekend 17th and 18th August and we have family celebrations including 2 birthdays and a wedding on the last day of the month.....!

The First Australian OSCAS (Open Studios Ceramics Australia's Showcase) take s place on 17th and 18th August.

My studio will be open for visitors from 10-4 on both days. Download Poster Here
There will be many pieces on display and for sale including these which were fired in my friend Sandra's™ woodfire kiln recently.

The firing took 16 hours of hard work and then a day and a half waiting before opening to see the results.

Lots of small bottle- vases, beakers and bowls were glazed with various glazes which were interesting to test in this type of kiln.

Cheers Lene.
