

Ceramist Lene Kuhl Jakobsen

Hi there.

It's the time a year where the weather warms up and X-mas is getting closer. As you can see I have been busy making. Most pieces are fired in my kiln but some pieces have been fired in a friend Sandra's woodfired kiln. On Tuesday we finished at 3 am after 13 hours of hard work!!

This month I am taking part in an exhibition at Cairns Regional Gallery and in 2015 I will be working on new pieces for 2 exhibitions in Canberra.

I have a few markets before X-mas so you can plan your visit in order to purchase nice handmade gifts.

In November:

22nd Maribyrnong Makers Market in Gamon St. Seddon 9.30am-3.30pm

In December:

Saturday 6th and Sunday 7th:

The Scandinavian X-mas Bazaar takes place at 21 St. Georges Rd in Toorak.

This is a big event presenting everything Nordic including food and music and a chance of winning 2 tickets to Denmark.

I have my own stall there so come along and enjoy a 'Scandinavian X-mas Fair'.

18th Twilight Market at Maribyrnong Makers Market 4.30pm-8.30pm

20th Ivanhoe Makers Market Crn Waterdale Rd. and Livingstone St. 10am-4pm

Finally I want to show you images by the Austrian artist and ecological activist Friedenreich Hundertwasser. I enjoyed seeing an exhibition of his paintings earlier this year in Denmark. Some pictures show a building in New Zealand where Hundertwasser lived for part of his life. His works are colourful and many express environmental concerns in their content.

Have a nice X-mas and summer.

Cheers Lene
